About the NBIC2013:

NBIC2013 is the 8th edition of the annual conference organized by the Netherlands Bioinformatics Centre (NBIC). NBIC2013 discusses the latest developments in bioinformatics and interrelated disciplines, and their wide-ranging applications in life sciences & health, agriculture, food & nutrition and industrial biotechnology. NBIC2013 offers a cross-disciplinary scientific program of (poster) presentations, application demonstrations and workshops, as well as other opportunities to exchange innovative ideas.
